

BEATEN BY TWO HE ACCUSES OF TRYING TO ROB

Policeman Knocked Down by Men Who Broke Store Window, but Captures One.

In attempting to arrest two men suspected of being burglars, Policeman Kingston of the East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street station was knocked down and beaten. Before he could get to his feet one of the men escaped. The other was held at the point of Kingston's gun and arrested.
Kingston saw the men standing in front of a department store at No. 265 Third avenue.
Suddenly there was a crash of glass as the men broke the show window.
Then Kingston sprang up to make arrests and was set upon.
Kingston's prisoner said he was Thomas McDermott of No. 374 Third avenue. He was charged with attempted burglary.

Company Told Passengers Are Cutting Off Money Favors—More Wages Asked.

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Pullman porters have sent a petition to the general manager of the Pullman Company asking for an increase in wages. The petition says: "The growing tendency of the travelling public either to discontinue altogether or to reduce to one-half or less the gratuities with which they formerly rewarded Pullman porters who merited such consideration and the high cost of living generally, have forced us to come through you to the Pullman Company begging for some relief."

but in reality it is nothing but a cheap piano. It is a piano that will be a dealer for that purpose, and in a short time the piano becomes perfectly useless.
